THE GRAND JURY FURTHER CHARGES:

COUNT 2
Threatening a Federal Law Enforcement Officer
18 U.S.C. § 115(a)(1)(B)

1. The Grand Jury incorporates herein by reference Count 1 as if set forth at length.

2. On or about April 13, 2021, in the Middle District of Pennsylvania, at the United States Penitentiary Allenwood, the defendant, did threaten to assault and murder, A.P., a Federal law enforcement officer, with intent to impede, intimidate, and interfere with A.P., while engaged in the performance of his official duties, and with intent to retaliate against A.P. on account of the performance of his official duties, specifically:

RONALD ROGERS,

(1) Following the recovery of the above-described weapon, the defendant stated to A.P., "Lieutenant if I get an extra charge for that piece of steel you will be the first one stuck with a piece of steel when I come back."

(2) When told that kind of talk was uncalled for, the defendant stated, "Lieutenant, can't you just make this disappear throw it in the trash like it never happened?" And, when told that his request could not be complied with, the defendant stated, "I can't wait to get out I'm a fuck you up I'm a kill you."

All in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 115(a)(1)(B) and (b)(4).
